Equipment

Orange paper

Green paper

Scissors

Glue

Cello tape

Black felt pen

Instructions

Fold the orange paper in half lengthways, using the scissors make cuts along the line making sure that you don't cut up to the edge of the paper, when you've made all the cuts, open up the paper which should now have slits in it. Draw in the middle of the page a pumpkin face with the black pen. Bend the paper round to make a tube shape and glue the ends together this will make the slits open out into a lantern shape. Cut a strip of green paper and bend it over on the inside of the top of the lantern and cello tape in place to make a handle. If you want to make more you can hang them up on a string as a lantern garland.

8 ways to recycle your Pumpkin after Halloween!

Mabwysiadu
Canolbarth a Gorllewin Cymru

1. Eat the seeds

Pumpkins store a salty, nutty treat in their depths. Roast the pumpkin seeds from your leftovers for a quick snack. Toss the rinsed seeds with a little olive oil, sprinkle some salt on top and roast for about 30 minutes in an oven at 300 degrees. You could also use them as bird seed and put them inside your bird feeder!

2. make pumpkin puree or soup

There are many different Pumpkin recipes online that all sound delicious.

3. Create a pumpkin spa treatment

Remember that silky pumpkin puree you made? Turn it into a facial with a little honey, coconut oil or whole milk for a quick, rejuvenating break.

4. Bake up some bread

Pumpkin bread makes perfect presents for co-workers and family. It also makes anyone's house smell like a dream. If you make it with your own pumpkin puree you can really said you made it from scratch.

5. Start composting pumpkins

If all else fails, a jack-o-lantern makes a wonderful compost pile. They break down within a couple of weeks and give your garden some much-needed nutrients. You just need a compost bin for your old pumpkins.

6. Feed Wildlife.

Take the guts and the Jack o Lantern up to your local forest and give the wildlife a special treat! (please don't do this if you painted the pumpkin or used any toxic items such as glitter or fake blood.)
